In the Matter of DHL WORLDWIDE EXPRESS

Anne Hill, Finance Manager of DHL Worldwide Express, National Billing Services Center, Houston, TX, appearing for Claimant.

James F. Fitzgerald, Director, Audit Division, Office of Transportation and Property Management, Federal Supply Service, General Services Administration, Washington, DC, appearing for General Services Administration.

Col. John B. Hoffman, Staff Judge Advocate, Headquarters, Military Traffic Management Command, Department of the Army, Alexandria, VA, appearing for Department of Defense.

PARKER, Board Judge.

DHL Worldwide Express asked the Board to review a denial by the General Services Administration's Audit Division of that carrier's claim for additional payment for transporting a shipment of containers from Mechanicsburg, Pennsylvania, to Grafenwoehr, Germany, and back, between February and April 2000, for the Department of Defense.

In response to the claim, the Audit Division reexamined the matter and agreed with the carrier. It consequently issued a settlement certificate granting payment. On July 31, 2003, the Board received claimant's motion to withdraw its claim.

Accordingly, the claim is dismissed.
